This is a great opportunity for your child to perform their recital piece!

Jacque Lawrence grew up in Texas and graduated from Houston Baptist University Summa Cum Laude with two Bachelor's degrees in Piano Performance and History. Jacque continued to study at Baylor University under Jane Abbott-Kirk and Dr. Lesley Sisterhen-McAllister and received her Masters degree in Piano Pedagogy and Music History. She fell in love with music at an early age and has been teaching private lessons for nearly 10 years to students of all ages and levels in private studios and at home during her time in school.

Jacque focuses on not only having the students be able to play the music, but also how to love the piano as well as a wide variety of music. She incorporates theory, technique, sight-reading, and ear training into lessons to involve the students in learning and enjoying the music as much as possible. She encourages students to set aspirations for themselves or for pieces which they want to play, and helps them work towards their goals each lesson. Throughout the lesson, she hopes to inspire the students to be involved in the learning process and to think through the music for themselves allowing them to express their own ideas and develop their skills as much as possible.
